

Michael Colón

Summit Board of Education

Michael Colón is the Vice President of the Summit Board of Education and is currently serving as the Chair of the Operations Committee and a member of the Policy Committee. He joined the Board in May of 2018.

Mr. Colón has served as a volunteer and youth coach for the Summit YMCA, Summit Basketball Club, Summit Junior Baseball and Softball, the Summit Recreational Center and the St. Teresa of Avila CYO Basketball program.

Professionally, Mr. Colón was a founding partner of Global Thematic Partners (GTP), an institutional investment management firm, and served as the company's COO / CFO from 2010 - 2020. Prior to GTP, Mr. Colón was the COO of the US Asset Management Division of Deutsche Bank, including Scudder Investments. He previously served as COO of the Private Client and Global Equities Divisions of Deutsche Bank in the US. Prior to Deutsche Bank, Mr. Colón was a management consultant within the banking and brokerage industry practice of Mitchell Madison Group, with clients including Merrill Lynch, CSFB and First USA. Before Mitchell Madison, Mr. Colón began his career in the Financial Advisory Services practice of Coopers & Lybrand in Philadelphia.

Mr. Colón holds a BS in Economics from the Wharton School of Business, a BA from the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, and an MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Mr. Colón lives in Summit with his wife Sharyn and four children, including two graduates of Summit High School and two children currently within the Summit Public School system at the middle and high school levels.