

Donna Miller
Summit Board of Education

Donna Miller feels fortunate to be a member of the Summit Board of Education. She currently holds the position of President. Her three-year term began in May 2017.

Ms. Miller loves everything about Summit and has been an active volunteer throughout her 23 years in the community. Her interest in enabling “the next generation” and advocating for the specific needs of Summit's youth has guided many of her volunteer choices. She is a former President of the Junior League of Summit, a former President of the Board of Trustees for the Summit Area YMCA and a former Chair of the Youth Program's Committee of Shaping Summit Together. She has been the PTO President of Brayton Elementary School, Lawton C. Johnson Summit Middle School and Summit High School. She has held various other volunteer positions within the Summit Schools and the community.

Ms. Miller has over 20 years of experience in organizational development and communication. In 2002 she founded DMTDConsulting which guides strategy development, change initiatives and leadership/team development for a wide range of corporate, not-for-profit and municipal organizations. Prior to founding DMTDConsulting, Ms. Miller was an HRD Director for Gap, Inc.

Ms. Miller holds a JD from Pace University School of Law and a BS from Ithaca College. She lives in Summit with her husband, her three college-age children and her golden retriever. In her spare time she teaches at the Bar Method of Summit and reads an alarming number of books.
