

Summit Public Schools
Summit, New Jersey
Grade Level / Content Area: AP Latin
Length of Course: Full year
Curriculum
Course Description:

This is the Advanced Placement Latin Course. It covers the prescribed sections of the Gallic Wars & of Virgil's Aeneid. Students will be able to translate, comprehend and analyse both grammatically and stylistically both texts. They will also see how these texts are cultural and historical products of a specific period of Roman history. In doing so they will be successful in the AP examination.

Unit 1 (De Bello Gallico – Book 1.1-7)

Standard 7.1 World Languages All students will be able to use a world language in addition to English to engage in meaningful conversation, to understand and interpret spoken and written language, and to present information, concepts, and ideas, while also gaining an understanding of the perspectives of other cultures. Through language study, they will make connections with other content areas, compare the language and culture studied with their own, and participate in home and global communities.
Big Ideas: In this unit students will learn about Julius Caesar's rise to power, downfall, and his role in the Gallic wars.. They will begin an introduction to the Gallic wars by reading a description of Gaul and will as the casus belli i.e. the plot of Orgetorix and the flight of the Helvetii. During the first unit they review the advanced uses of the ablative, accusative, dative, and genitive cases with focus on AP style grammar questions.
Essential Questions What provocative questions will foster inquiry, understanding, and transfer of learning?	Enduring Understandings What will students understand about the big ideas?
1. Who was Julius Caesar, How did he come to power, why was he waging war in Gaul? 2. Who were the Gauls and what was the layout of their country? 3. Why did the Romans fear/ dislike the Gauls? ----- 1. What are the 6 cases in Latin? 2. What are the idiosyncratic uses of these cases?	Students will understand that... 1. Caesar gained power through an agreement with Pompey and Crassus as well gaining a considerable amount of debt. His conquests in Gaul were to gain power rivaling Pompey's and manage his debt. 2. Gaul was a country composed of many tribes who in both distant and recent history had negative interactions with the Roman people. 3. In early Roman history Brennus the Gaul had sacked Rome and in recent history the 7.1.AL.PRSNT.5: Compare and contrast the structural elements and/or cultural perspectives found in culturally authentic materials with those found in selections in English.

Students meet their 1st quarter groups and discuss personal interests and learning styles in Latin.

Instructional Strategies:

Interpretive:

Students translate & read the De Bello Gallico on a sentence-by-sentence level to comprehend the minutiae of the language.

Students use google docs to reorder Caesar's Latin into chunks to better understand his style of writing and the structure of the Latin prose sentence.

Presentation

Students use a grammar hunt activity to highlight and demonstrate target grammar (case usage).

Students review prepositions to describe the layout of Gaul

Interpersonal

Discussion of text for agreement before translation

Students respond to census which focuses on the target grammar (Case usage).

Sample Assessments

Formative:

Weekly 5 minute grammar quizzes based on nightly reading.

Weekly critical translation of 25-30 word selection from the readings.

Review of Gaulish geography using purpose games quiz.

Unit 6 (Virgil Aeneid – Book 2, Lines 40–56, 201–249, 268–297, and 559–620)

Standard 7.1 World Languages All students will be able to use a world language in addition to English to engage in meaningful conversation, to understand and interpret spoken and written language, and to present information, concepts, and ideas, while also gaining an understanding of the perspectives of other cultures. Through language study, they will make connections with other content areas, compare the language and culture studied with their own, and participate in home and global communities.
Big Ideas: By understanding the events surrounding the story of the wooden horse, students will see how gods and mortals interact in Roman literature. Students will explore rhetorical devices in Latin poetry and how these devices are later used in English literature.
Essential Questions What provocative questions will foster inquiry, understanding, and transfer of learning?	Enduring Understandings What will students understand about the big ideas?
1. How do gods affect the outcome of the Aeneid? 2. How does the Trojan Horse episode characterize the Trojans and the role of fate in the Aeneid? ----- 1. How do I write a successful long essay for the AP? 2. What literary devices are often used in Latin literature.	Students will understand that... 1. The Trojan War is fought by both mortals and immortals. The division among the immortales was caused by events before the Trojan War. 2. The wooden horse event is affected by both human (Cassandra) and divine actions (Laocoon). ----- 1. A successful AP essay demonstrates knowledge of the language as well as the overall piece of literature by citing relevant Latin throughout a given section of that work. 2. The following devices are on the AP Latin assessment: alliteration, anaphora, anastrophe, apostrophe, asyndeton, chiasmus, ellipsis, enjambment, hendiadys, hyperbaton, hyperbole, litotes, metaphor, metonymy, onomatopoeia, oxymoron, personification, polysyndeton, rhetorical question, simile, synchysis, synecdoche, tmesis, transferred epithet
