Summit High School
ESL Foundations
Length of Course: Full Year

Course Description:
This course is designed for immigrant students newly arrived to the country with limited or no English language skills or prior exposure to English instruction. The goals of this course are introducing English literacy skills, building vocabulary, and developing basic communication skills. Each unit explores social-emotional themes while acquiring English to communicate in social and academic environments. In addition, students will gain knowledge and understanding of American school system and U.S. culture. Port of Entry ESL corresponds to ACCESS levels 1.0 - 2.0. Student work will conform to WIDA Language Development Standards and New Jersey Student Learning Standards.

Unit 1: Awareness and Adaptation

Anchor Standard:
WIDA Standard 1: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
WIDA Standard 2: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

Big Ideas: Course Objectives/Content Statement(s)
- Understanding and communicating our feelings
- Becoming aware of and adapting to our surroundings
- Identifying and reflecting on our strengths and areas of improvement
- Analyzing characters’ feelings, strengths, and weaknesses

RL.9-10.3. Analyze how complex characters (e.g., those with multiple or conflicting motivations) develop over the course of a text, interact with other characters, and advance the plot or develop the theme.

- use adjectives to describe people
- capitalize and punctuate sentences
- associating sight words with total physical responses
- develop phonics & phonemic awareness (short vowels, blends, etc.)

Literacy Skills:
- establish reading procedure
- discover reading strategies: previewing, predicting, monitoring, organizing, rereading
- identify and describe characters in fictional texts
- extract key information and vocabulary from nonfiction texts

Sample Assessments:

Formative:
Journal Entry Prompts:
“I feel...when...”
“When I feel... I can...”
“I am aware of how... makes me feel because...”
“I am good at... because...”
“I need to improve... because...”
“I am grateful for...”
“I am bothered by...”

Word Work:
Writing sentences and selecting images for vocabulary words (Personal Dictionary)
Associating sight words with total physical responses (TPR)
Identifying words with corresponding sounds

Diagnostic Tests:
Literacyworks: Multiple Intelligences
Native Language Literacy Test
Learning Style Diagnostic Test

Reading:
Reading Graphic Organizers

Summative:
Sight Words & Vocabulary Quizzes
Identity Charts
Psychology of Colors Mini-Presentation

Projects/Post Assessment:
- Reading Comprehension Tests:
  Demonstrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills
  - Identifying characters in fictional text

(Revised July 2020)
○ Analyze character feelings, strengths, and weaknesses
○ Use textual evidence to justify character analysis

● Personal Portfolio:
  Present portfolio about feelings, strengths, and areas of improvement

Unit 2: Mindset and Motivation

Anchor Standard:

WIDA Standard 1: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

WIDA Standard 2: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

Big Ideas: Course Objectives/Content Statement(s)

- Defining and cultivating happiness, confidence, and optimism
- Analyzing the theme or main idea of a text
- Examining and expressing our motivations
- Developing a growth mindset
- Connecting text to self

Essential Questions

What provocative questions will foster inquiry, understanding, and transfer of learning?

- How do I develop a growth mindset?
- What motivates us?
- How do we effectively articulate our unique perspective?
- How can main ideas or themes of text relate to us?

Enduring Understandings

What will students understand about the big ideas?

- Students will understand that:
  - embracing our mistakes and accepting challenges as learning opportunities reframes our mindset
  - identifying our motivations informs us about ourselves, our mindsets, and our happiness
  - engaging in extended discussions, investigations, and writing helps us express our mindsets and motivations
  - texts have important themes and ideas that educates us about our individual lives

Areas of Focus: Proficiencies (Progress Indicators)

Students will:

- NJSLSA.R1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences and relevant connections from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.
- NJSLSA.R7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.
- NJSLSA.W1. Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid

Instructional Focus:

Reading:

- analyze the theme or main idea of a text (fiction/nonfiction)
- connect themes or main ideas to self
- utilize reading strategies and procedures to aid comprehension
- interpret the meaning of motivational quotes

Writing:

- add to personal dictionaries with sight words, key vocabulary, and academic terminology using sentences and visuals
- justify meaning of text or quote using textual evidence

reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.

NJSLSA.W5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

NJSLSA.W10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

RL.9-10.7. Analyze the representation of a subject or a key scene in two different artistic mediums, including what is emphasized or absent in each work (e.g., Auden’s “Musée des Beaux Arts” and Breughel’s Landscape with the Fall of Icarus).

RL.9-10.4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone (e.g., how the language evokes a sense of time and place; how it sets a formal or informal tone).

RI.9-10.2. Determine a central idea of a text and analyze how it is developed and refined by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.

Areas of Focus: Proficiencies (Progress Indicators)

- Students will:
  - NJSL.A.R2. Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.

Examples, Outcomes, Assessments

Instructional Focus:

- Students will…
  - Reading:
    - organizing and summarizing information from nonfiction texts
NJSLSA.R3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.

NJSLSA.R5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

NJSLSA.W5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

NJSLSA.W10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

RL.9-10.7. Analyze the representation of a subject or a key scene in two different artistic mediums, including what is emphasized or absent in each work (e.g., Auden’s “Musée des Beaux Arts” and Breughel’s Landscape with the Fall of Icarus).

- identify and sequence plot events from fictional texts
- gather information about tools for regulating emotions and impulses
- utilize reading strategies and procedures to develop reading comprehension

Writing:
- create a biographical project about someone who is known for resilience against discrimination
- write about one tool that has helped you regulate your emotions
- write journal entries about resilience and regulation
- use paragraph frames to summarize nonfiction texts
- express and plan out social, emotional, and academic goals

Speaking & Listening:
- discuss how the unit’s theme of “Resilience and Regulation” relate to various pieces of art during a Gallery Walk
- deliver a biographical project about a resilient person
- listen to various fables and sequence plot events
- present personal portfolio with social, emotional, and academic goals

Grammar Skills & Word Work:
- use prepositions of place (on, under, next to, in back of, in front of, between, above, over in)
- use present progressive affirmative statements
- use the present progressive in the negative form
- ask and answer short answer questions with the present progressive
- acquire paragraph structure
- develop phonics & phonemic awareness (short vowels, blends, etc.)

Reading Strategy:
- apply reading strategy for comprehension: sequencing, organizing, and summarizing
- identify plot and retelling events
- summarize key details from a text

Identifying words with corresponding sounds

Reading:
Reading Graphic Organizer (Organizing, Summarizing, and Sequencing)

Summative:
Sight Words & Vocabulary Quizzes
Biography Summaries (Paragraphs)
Adding Tools and Goals to Personal Portfolio

Projects/Post Assessment:
• Reading Comprehension Test:
  Demonstrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills
  ○ Summarizing key details (nonfiction)
  ○ Sequencing plot events (fiction)
  ○ Identifying text features
• Biographical Presentation:
  Create a biographical project about someone who is known for resilience against discrimination
  • What is his/her name?
  • Where does he/she live?
  • What are his/her background?
  • When is his/her birthday?
  • What does he/she do? What is his/her job?
  • What are his/her accomplishments?
  • What is your favorite (quote/work) of his/hers? Explain his/her work in two sentences (What does it mean to you?).
  • Why do you think he or she is resilient?

Instructional Strategies:
Interdisciplinary Connections
- Students will read historical texts about important figures that have experienced discrimination (History).
- Students will connect the unit's theme to artistic representations such as paintings and photography (Art, Design, and Photography).

Technology Integration
- Students will use Storyboard That to retell the plot of a fictional text.
- Students will watch videos about fables and sequence plot events on EdPuzzle.

Media Literacy Integration
- Students will use various online platforms to read fiction and nonfiction texts.
- Students will highlight key details from images, videos, and texts.

Global Perspectives
- Students will read universal fables and multicultural texts.
- Students will gather and present information about discriminated people with different perspectives.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key Skills Practices:
- Act as a responsible and contributing community member and employee.
- Attend to financial well-being.
- Consider the environmental, social, and economic impacts of decisions.
- Demonstrate creativity and innovation.
- Utilize critical thinking to make sense of problems and persevere in solving them.
- Model integrity, ethical leadership, and effective management.
- Plan education and career paths aligned to personal goals.
- Use technology to enhance productivity, increase collaboration, and communicate effectively.
- Work productively in teams while using cultural/global competence.

Unit 4: Connection and Collaboration

Anchor Standard:

WIDA Standard 1: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

WIDA Standard 2: English Language Learners (ELL’s) communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

Big Ideas: Course Objectives/Content Statement(s)

- Developing empathy and respect towards others
- Appreciating diversity and becoming aware of cultural differences
- Identifying setting and interpreting the effect of time and place
- Comparing and contrasting two texts, perspectives, and experiences
- Making connections across texts

Essential Questions

What provocative questions will foster inquiry, understanding, and transfer of learning?

- Why is it important to have empathy and respect towards others?
- How do we show empathy and respect towards others?
- How do we collaborate and connect with others?
- Why is it important to identify the setting of a text?
- How do we make connections across texts?

Enduring Understandings

What will students understand about the big ideas?

Students will understand that:

- Empathy and respect are essential qualities in becoming a well-rounded member of a community
- Appreciating diversity and acknowledging cultural differences help us demonstrate empathy and respect
- Sharing our similarities, adapting to our differences, and working together facilitate connection and collaboration
- Determining the context of a text develops our comprehension of the plot events and characters
- Comparing and contrasting main ideas, text details, and text features strengthen our ability to make connections across texts

Areas of Focus: Proficiencies (Progress Indicators)

Examples, Outcomes, Assessments

Students will:

NJSLSA.R9. Analyze and reflect on how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

Instructional Focus:

Students will...

Reading:

- Determine setting of a fictional text
- Analyze the importance of a text’s historical and geographical context

(Revised July 2020)
RL.9-10.7. Analyze the representation of a subject or a key scene in two different artistic mediums, including what is emphasized or absent in each work (e.g., Auden’s “Musée des Beaux Arts” and Breughel's Landscape with the Fall of Icarus).

NJSLSA.W6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

NJSLSA.W9. Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research.

W.9-10.7. Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

NJSLSA.W10. Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.

NJSLSA.SL1. Prepare for and participate effectively in a range of conversations and collaborations with diverse partners, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.

NJSLSA.SL4. Present information, findings, and supporting evidence such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning and the organization, development, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

- make connections across texts
- compare and contrast main ideas, text details, and text features

Writing:
- write journal entries about empathy, respect, diversity, and social cues
- add to Personal Portfolio highlighting their empathy and appreciation for global issues or cultures
- write one paragraph comparing texts using paragraph frame
- write one paragraph contrasting texts using paragraph frame

Speaking & Listening:
- discuss how the unit’s theme of “Connection and Collaboration” relate to various pieces of art during a Gallery Walk
- deliver a presentation on a Community Service Research project
- engage in collaborative activities requiring active listening skills

Grammar Skills & Word Work:
- identify major cities on a map of The United States
- use “because” to give reasons and “and” to give more information
- use prepositions of location (on the corner of, in front of, in back of, behind, next to, across from, between)
- Identify regions in the United States (North, Sound, Midwest, etc.)
- use adjectives to describe a city

Literacy Skills:
- use Venn Diagrams to organize information
- identify settings in fables and short stories
- make connections between texts
- compare and contrast texts
- determine type of text using text features

Sample Assessments:

Formative:

Journal Entries:

“It is important to be kind because…”

“I lend a hand when…”

“People deserve respect because…”

“If we work together, we can…”

“If I had all the money in the world, I would…”

“I empathize when…”

(Revised July 2020)
“We should appreciate everyone because...”
“I want to help my community to...”
“I know I should... when...”

Word Work:
Writing sentences and selecting images for vocabulary words (Personal Dictionary)
Associating sight words with total physical responses (TPR)

Reading:
Reading Graphic Organizer
Venn Diagram

Summative:
Sight Words & Vocabulary Quizzes
Compare & Contrast Paragraphs
Adding Empathy into Personal Portfolio

Projects/Post Assessment:
- Reading Comprehension Test:
  Demonstrate reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills
  ○ Identifying setting (fiction)
  ○ Comparing & contrasting texts (nonfiction & fiction)
  ○ Making connections across texts (nonfiction & fiction)
- Community Service Research Project Presentation:
  ○ What is the name of the project?
  ○ Who do the people help?
  ○ What mission do they have?
  ○ Where is their project located?
  ○ When do they help people?
  ○ Why is this project important?

Instructional Strategies:
- Interdisciplinary Connections
  - Students will identify the setting and its importance (History & Geography).
  - Students will discuss social issues affecting communities (Social Studies).
  - Students will present data during their Community Service Research Project (Mathematics).

- Technology Integration
  - Students will use Padlet to engage in collaborative activities and discussions.
• Media Literacy Integration
  - Students will make connections across different forms of media including art, literature, and film.
  - Students will interpret information presented in graphs, maps, and timelines.

• Global Perspectives
  - Students will discuss nonprofit organizations from different countries in the world.
  - Students will engage in conversations about cultural norms across the globe.

---

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key Skills Practices:

- Act as a responsible and contributing community member and employee.
- Attend to financial well-being.
- Consider the environmental, social, and economic impacts of decisions.
