Summit, NJ

12th Grade / AP European History Course of Study (2018)
Length of Course: One Year

28 weeks of active teaching of new material/skills before AP Exam

1-2 weeks of review prior to AP Exam

3 weeks following AP Exam to explore select related topics

Course Description: This full-year course will survey the major trends and patterns of European history. The course will begin with the social, economic, political, and technological changes created by the Renaissance. Students are expected to demonstrate knowledge of basic chronology and of major events and trends from approximately 1450 to the very recent past. Overall, the course will focus on the nations of Western Europe, along with national developments in Prussia, Austria-Hungary, and Russia. The French Revolution, the Revolutions of 1848, and the Russian Revolution will also be areas of emphasis. Influential changes in art, music, philosophy, the family structure, and other areas will also be studied. Students will utilize and analyze information from the text, primary source readings, online resources, and other sources. Students are expected to do a considerable amount of challenging reading in both the major text and supplementary sources.

The curriculum is designed to coordinate with the requirements of the Advanced Placement exam in European history. Students are required to complete a summer reading/writing assignment in order to review and prepare for the opening unit on the Renaissance. In addition, students are required to take the AP exam in the spring. What follows is an extensive list of themes from the College Board that students examine throughout the course and the course of study that outlines the focus of inquiry for each unit.

Skill 1: Historical Causation

Historical thinking involves the ability to identify, analyze, and evaluate the relationships among multiple historical causes and effects, distinguishing between those that are long-term and proximate, and among coincidence, causation, and correlation.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Compare causes and/or effects, including between short-term and long-term effects.

- Analyze and evaluate the interaction of multiple causes and/or effects.
- Assess historical contingency by distinguishing among coincidence, causation, and correlation, as well as critique existing interpretations of cause and effect.

Skill 2: Patterns of Continuity and Change over Time

Historical thinking involves the ability to recognize, analyze, and evaluate the dynamics of historical continuity and change over periods of time of varying length, as well as the ability to relate these patterns to larger historical processes or themes.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Analyze and evaluate historical patterns of continuity and change over time.
- Connect patterns of continuity and change over time to larger historical processes □ or themes.

Skill 3: Periodization

□ Historical thinking involves the ability to describe, analyze, evaluate, and construct models that historians use to divide history into discrete periods. To accomplish this periodization, historians identify turning points, and they recognize that the choice of specific dates accords a higher value to one narrative, region, or group than to another narrative, region, or group. How one defines historical periods depends on what one considers most significant in society — economic, social, religious, or cultural life — so historical thinking involves being aware of how the circumstances and contexts of a historian’s work might shape his or her choices about periodization.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Explain ways that historical events and processes can be organized within blocks of time.
- Analyze and evaluate competing models of periodization of European history.

Skill 4: Comparison

Historical thinking involves the ability to describe, compare, and evaluate multiple historical developments within one society, one or more developments across or between different societies, and in various chronological and geographical contexts. It also involves the ability to identify, compare, and evaluate multiple perspectives on a given historical experience.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Compare related historical developments and processes across place, time, and/or different societies, or within one society.
- Explain and evaluate multiple and differing perspectives on a given historical phenomenon.

Skill 5: Contextualization

□ Historical thinking involves the ability to connect historical events and processes to specific circumstances of time and place and to broader regional, national, or global processes.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Explain and evaluate ways in which specific historical phenomena, events, or processes connect to broader regional, national, or global processes occurring at the same time.
- Explain and evaluate ways in which a phenomenon, event, or process connects to other similar historical phenomena across time and place.

Skill 6: Historical Argumentation

Historical thinking involves the ability to define and frame a question about the past and to address that question through the construction of an argument. A plausible and persuasive argument requires a clear, comprehensive, and analytical thesis, supported by relevant historical evidence — not simply evidence that supports a preferred or preconceived position. Additionally, argumentation involves the capacity to describe, analyze, and evaluate the arguments of others in light of available evidence.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Analyze commonly accepted historical arguments and explain how an argument has been constructed from historical evidence.
- Construct convincing interpretations through analysis of disparate, relevant historical evidence.
- Evaluate and synthesize conflicting historical evidence to construct persuasive historical arguments.

Skill 7: Appropriate Use of Relevant Historical Evidence

Historical thinking involves the ability to describe and evaluate evidence about the past from diverse sources (including written documents, works of art, archaeological artifacts, oral traditions, and other primary sources), and requires paying attention to the content, authorship, purpose, format, and audience of such sources. It involves the capacity to extract useful information, make supportable inferences, and draw appropriate conclusions from historical evidence, while also noting the context in which the evidence was produced and used, recognizing its limitations and assessing the points of view it reflects.

Proficient students should be able to ...

- Analyze features of historical evidence such as audience, purpose, point of view, format, argument, limitations, and context germane to the evidence considered.
- Based on analysis and evaluation of historical evidence, make supportable inferences and draw appropriate conclusions.

Skill 8: Interpretation

Historical thinking involves the ability to describe, analyze, evaluate, and construct diverse interpretations of the past, and to be aware of how particular circumstances and contexts in which individual historians work and write also shape their interpretation of past events. Historical interpretation requires analyzing evidence, reasoning, contexts, and points of view found in both primary and secondary sources.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Analyze diverse historical interpretations.
- Evaluate how historians' perspectives influence their interpretations and how models of historical interpretation change over time.

Skill 9: Synthesis

Historical thinking involves the ability to develop meaningful and persuasive new understandings of the past by applying all of the other historical thinking skills, by drawing appropriately on ideas and methods from different fields of inquiry or disciplines, and by creatively fusing disparate, relevant, and sometimes contradictory evidence from primary sources and secondary works. Additionally, synthesis may involve applying insights about the past to other historical contexts or circumstances, including the present.

Proficient students should be able to...

- Combine disparate, sometimes contradictory evidence from primary sources and secondary works in order to create a persuasive understanding of the past.
- Apply insights about the past to other historical contexts or circumstances, including the present.

III. Thematic Learning Objectives

The content learning objectives for the AP European History course and exam are organized under six themes, which are topics of historical inquiry to explore throughout the AP European History course. Each course theme is accompanied by a series of overarching questions. Additional learning objectives referenced can be found in the Course and Exam Description from the College Board.

Theme 1: Interaction of Europe and the World (INT)

- Why have Europeans sought contact and interaction with other parts of the world? (INT-1 and 2)
- What political, technological, and intellectual developments enabled European contact and interaction with other parts of the world? (INT-3 and 4)
- How have encounters between Europe and the world shaped European culture, politics, and society? (INT-5, 6, 7, and 8)
- What impact has contact with Europe had on non-European societies? (INT-9, 10, and 11)

□ Theme 2: Poverty and Prosperity (PP) □

- How has capitalism developed as an economic system? (PP-1, 2, 3, 4, and 5)
- How has the organization of society changed as a result of or in response to the development and spread of capitalism? (PP-6, 7, and 8)
- What were the causes and consequences of economic and social inequality? (PP-9, 10, 11, and 12)
- How did individuals, groups, and the state respond to economic and social inequality? (PP-13, 14, 15, and 16)

Theme 3: Objective Knowledge and Subjective Visions (OS)

- What roles have traditional sources of authority (church and classical antiquity) played in the creation and transmission of knowledge? (OS-1, 2, 3, and 4)
- How and why did Europeans come to rely on the scientific method and reason in place of traditional authorities? (OS-5, 6, 7, 8, and 9)
- How and why did Europeans come to value subjective interpretations of reality? (OS-10, 11, 12, and 13)

Theme 4: States and Other Institutions of Power (SP)

- What forms have European governments taken, and how have these changed over time? (SP-1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6)
- In what ways and why have European governments moved toward or reacted against representative and democratic principles and practices? (SP-7, 8, and 9)
- How did civil institutions develop apart from governments, and what impact have they had upon European states? (SP-10, 11, and 12)
- How and why did changes in warfare affect diplomacy, the European state

- system, and the balance of power? (SP-13 and 14)
- How did the concept of a balance of power emerge, develop, and eventually become institutionalized? (SP-15, 16, 17, 18, and 19)

Theme 5: Individual and Society (IS)

- What forms have family, class, and social groups taken in European history, and how have they changed over time? (IS-1, 2, 3, 4, and 5)
- How and why have tensions arisen between the individual and society over the course of European history? (IS-6, 7, and 8)
- How and why has the status of specific groups within society changed over time? (IS-9 and 10)

Theme 6: National and European Identity (NI)

- How and why were national identities created, developed, and challenged? (NI-1)
- How and why did cultural, regional, and other social identities coexist, challenge, or reinforce national identities and empires? (NI-2)
- How and why did political, economic, and religious developments challenge or reinforce the idea of a unified Europe from 1450 to the present? (NI-3)

IV. Overview of Common Core Implementation in AP European History

The AP European History course requires students to endure rigorous challenges in terms of reading and writing. The course mirrors the Common Core Standards for Literacy and Writing in almost every unit. Students will practice and develop relevant historical skills in a variety of writing styles including short-answer responses, longer essays (traditional free response essays), as well as document-based questions (DBQ) designed to test a student’s ability to work with and understand historical documents. Rigorous writing opportunities will allow students to address topics that deal with specific issues related to the European experience (political, social, cultural, economic) with a special emphasis on change over time. Effective answers to essay questions depend in part upon a student’s successful demonstration of a clear understanding (and application) of the meanings of important directive words. The following list indicate the way in which material is to be presented:

- Analyze: determine various factors or component parts and examine their nature and relationship
- Assess/Evaluate: judge the value or character of something; appraise; weigh the positive and negative points; give an opinion regarding the value of; discuss the advantages and disadvantages of
- Compare: examine for the purpose of noting similarities and differences
- Contrast: examine in order to show dissimilarities or points of difference
- Describe: give an account of; tell about; give a word picture of
- Discuss: write about; consider or examine by argument or from various points of view; debate; present the different sides of
- Explain: make clear or plain; make clear the causes or reasons for; make known in detail; tell the meaning of

By the AP Exam in May, students will be able to exhibit the following skills in writing the essay.

Essay	Students will write an essay that:
DBQ	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Has a relevant thesis and supports that thesis with evidence from the documents</li> <li>● Uses all of the documents</li> <li>● Analyzes the documents by grouping them in as many appropriate ways as possible. Does not simply summarize the documents individually.</li> <li>● Takes into account the sources of the documents and analyzes the authors’ points of view</li> <li>● Identifies and explains the need for at least one additional type of document</li> </ul>
Continuity &amp; Change Over Time LEQ	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Has a relevant thesis and supports that thesis with appropriate historical evidence</li> <li>● Addresses all parts of the question</li> <li>● Uses world historical context to show continuities and changes over time</li> <li>● Analyzes the process of continuity and change over time</li> </ul>
Compare &amp; Contrast LEQ	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Has a relevant thesis and supports that thesis with appropriate historical evidence</li> <li>● Addresses all parts of the question</li> <li>● Makes direct, relevant comparisons</li> <li>● Analyzes relevant reasons for similarities and differences</li> </ul>
Short Answer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Focuses on a concise response to the question that is asked</li> <li>● Consists of multiple parts</li> </ul>

V. Media Literacy Skills

Students will be able to:

- Consume and produce various forms of media (film, television, radio, internet, etc.) as a 21st century tool to think critically and problem solve.
- Formulate questions and hypotheses from multiple perspectives, using multiple sources.
- Gather, analyze, and reconcile information from primary and secondary sources to support or reject hypotheses.
- Examine source data within the historical, social, political, geographic, or economic context in which it was created, testing credibility and evaluating bias.
- Evaluate historical and contemporary communications to identify factual accuracy, soundness of evidence, and absence of bias and discuss strategies used by the government, political candidates, and the media to communicate with the public.
- Determine whose point of view matters
- Determine how one can locate legitimate sources of information
- Analyze varying perspectives on the meaning of historical events.
- Ascertain credible and questionable sources of information about historical and contemporary events
- Analyze how public opinion is measured and used in public debate (e.g., electronic polling, focus groups, Gallup polls, newspaper and television polls) and how the government and the media can influence public opinion.
- Examine ways how can citizens and groups participate effectively in the democratic process
- Understand how the U.S. view of global issues and challenges may not be the same as the views held by other countries and cultures.

VI. Course Outline

Standard 6.2 World History / Global Studies. All students will acquire the knowledge and skills to think analytically and systematically about how past interactions of people, cultures, and the environment affect issues across time and cultures. Such knowledge and skills enable students to make informed decisions as socially and ethically responsible world citizens in the 21st century.
Period 1: c. 1450 to c. 1648 Big Ideas: Course Objectives / Content Statement(s) Period 1 features Europe on the brink of modern expansion. Europe transitions from the medieval world into the early modern world. Dramatic economic as well as territorial expansion is about to begin. The Renaissance and Protestant Reformation, and exploration illustrate the importance of changing technology and the impact of global interaction on the development of culture. During the 16th and 17th centuries, many European nations experienced significant changes in political and cultural structures. A dynamic biological exchange occurred after the arrival of the Europeans in the New World. Period 3: c. 1815 to c. 1914 Big Ideas: Course Objectives / Content Statement(s)  New ideological and technological realities would shape the “long 19th century”. As industrialization spread so did its problems. Liberalism, Nationalism and Conservatism would shape the landscape through 1914. Political and economic competition, the demand for natural resources and population growth would drive European powers to expand their overseas empires beyond the trading posts of the age of exploration. Europe would come to dominate the globe. This unprecedented political and industrial expansion would not be without its consequences.

6.3 Active Citizenship in the 21st-Century.
All students will acquire the skills needed to be active, informed citizens who value diversity and promote cultural understanding by working collaboratively to address the challenges that are inherent in living in an interconnected world.
Big Ideas: Course Objectives / Content Statement(s)
Good citizenship skills in the 21st century require more than just a rudimentary knowledge of world affairs.
