| Model United Nations Club | Mr. Whiteside | | The LCJSMS Model United Nations Club engages students in grades 6-8 in the process of discovery and interpretation of issues that challenge society. Students step into the shoes of ambassadors of countries that are members of the UN, from all corners of the globe. The students, better known as "delegates", debate current issues on the organization's vast agenda. They prepare draft resolutions, plot strategy, negotiate with supporters and adversaries, resolve conflicts, and navigate the UN's rules of procedure—all in the interest of resolving problems that affect the world. These conferences take a vast deal of preparation and will meet weekly to ensure that students are able to meaningfully participate in these conferences. Meetings will be held on Wednesdays after school. |
| Not Just For Knitters | Mrs. Silagi Mrs. P. Kennedy | 203 | Students and teachers who are interested in Knitting, Crocheting, and other yarn crafts are invited to meet every other Tuesday. Opportunities and supplies to complete gifts for personal use as well as for charities will be provided. No experience necessary. Great for stress reduction. |
| Spotlight | Ms. Santos Mrs. Jurista | | The Spotlight Yearbook Club meets throughout the year in the Computer Lab on Thursdays after school. Open to all grade levels, this club offers opportunities for writers, photographers, layout design staff, and yearbook sales teams. Leadership positions will be determined based on performance, knowledge, and reliability. |
| Speech & Debate Club | Mrs. Martin Mr. Wannamaker | 228 | The Speech & Debate Club is two awesome clubs in one! Students can perfect various types of public speaking such as interpretive reading, original oratory, and impromptu speaking. Students can also learn how to debate in an effective manner. The advisors are Mrs. Martin and Mr. Wannamaker. We meet Tuesdays and Thursdays in Room 228. |
| Stage Band | Mr. Piepoli | 135 | Are you In The Mood to experience jazz, swing, big band, rock, improvisation, and more? The LCJSMS Jazz Fusion Ensemble is an audition group open to any student who is in the band, orchestra, or chorus programs and plays a jazz instrument. Auditions take place in early October. Students will meet every Wednesday after school from 3:00-4:30 p.m. Rehearsal and performance dates will be distributed to all members upon acceptance into the ensemble. This ensemble will perform at various assemblies, concerts and venues during the course of the year, including a festival at Dorney Park in May. Don't miss out on this exciting musical opportunity! Please see Mr. Piepoli with any questions. |

| Student Council | Mr. Burns Ms. Wager | The Student Council serves the entire school and is run by an Executive Board consisting of four elected officers. In addition, there are approximately 20-24 additional council members comprising the entire Executive Board. Meetings are held every Tuesday morning at 7:30 A.M. in room 132. | |
| TedX | Mr. Wallock Ms. Wysoczynski Mrs. Gutierrez | TEDx is an annual convention that brings together the greatest minds of our time and provides them with a stage to present their ideas to the entire world. Speeches cover a wide range of topics including science, technology, philanthropy and philosophy. Regardless of subject matter, all TEDx talks share a common thread, a passion for the topic. We here at LCJSMS are fortunate enough to have been licensed by TEDx to produce our own independently organized event, TEDx LCJSMS. A group of ten student presenters will be chosen and three producers will become totally responsible for the development and presentation of this event. Presenters will spend the year researching a topic of interest. The findings and conclusions yielded from this research will be presented in June through the delivery of a ten-minute speech. Producers will handle every aspect of putting on the presentation. Their responsibilities include stage design, audio and visual setups, advertising and program design. We look forward to meeting interested students at our initial meeting in mid October. Meetings will be on Friday afternoons. | |
| Wellness Club | Michelle Hoff | Conf. Room | Wellness Club is a club to help all students build their middle school survival kit to take on the changes of middle school. The club members or "Wellness Ambassadors" will learn about different wellness tools and strategies to help every student thrive! The "Wellness Ambassadors" will promote the wellness message to the rest of the LCJSMS community and lead school-wide events related to wellness throughout the year, encouraging all students to be their best. |
