If your family, school or community would benefit from our services or if you have further questions please contact JFS MetroWest at 973-765-9050

Jewish Family Service of MetroWest New Jersey has been helping families and people of all ages manage life’s challenges since 1861. Time-honored values of empathy, professionalism and confidentiality are the hallmark of JFS, while our up-to-date treatment modalities and nimble response to community need have distinguished JFS as a premier family service agency.

JFS MetroWest is committed to inclusive programming. Please call 973-765-9050 to discuss how we can help you.

This program is generously funded by:
THE ERIC ELIEZER LEVENSON FOUNDATION FOR HOPE

The Eric Eliezer Levenson Foundation for Hope recently established a fund at JFS MetroWest in memory of Eric, son of Eta and Mark Levenson, which supports programming related to mental health awareness.

This program is made possible through the Breaking Barriers Matching Grant Initiative.

If your family, school or community would benefit from our services or if you have further questions please contact JFS MetroWest at 973-765-9050

This workshop will teach participants how to:

- Engage families when working with depressed and/or suicidal adolescents
- Recognize barriers to engaging families in treatment, including adolescent resistance and methods to work through this resistance
- Identify and assess risk for suicide
- Distinguish the differences between risk factors and warning signs
- Review the current models for conducting safety planning with suicidal youth

Suzanne Levy, PhD
