

Deb McCann

Summit Board of Education

Deb McCann is a member of the Summit Board of Education. She is in her 5th year on the Board; she was first appointed in May 2014, and was reappointed for her 2nd term in May 2017. Ms. McCann is currently serving as President of the Board of Education.

Ms. McCann has been at Dun & Bradstreet since 2009 and currently serves as Assistant Treasurer. She is responsible for managing the company's bank relationships, corporate cash, investments, debt, and foreign exchange. Prior to Dun & Bradstreet, Ms. McCann was Senior Director, Financial Planning and Analysis, Risk Management and Procurement for Cegedim. There she analyzed corporate costs and streamlined processes. Her analyses and process improvements generated millions of dollars in annual savings. She began her career at AT&T where she spent 10 years in corporate finance including financial planning/analysis and investor relations. Ms. McCann has an MBA from Harvard Business School and a Bachelor's of Science in Finance and International Business from Penn State University.

Ms. McCann was a member of the Summit Public Library Board of Trustees from 2012-2014, Treasurer of the Summit Library Foundation from 2014-2017, and a volunteer at Franklin Elementary School.

Ms. McCann lives in Summit with her husband Erin and their three children who attend the Summit Public Schools.